Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/14/07 has been entered.

Specification

The amendment to the title of the invention has been entered. Applicants' cooperation in supplying such is greatly appreciated.

Errata

Claim 1 is drawn to a product; hence all recitations (such as lines 6; and 15-20) that are drawn to desired results must occur from the limitations/structure positively recited.

Claim Objections

In particular, all the claims now recite the phrase:

"... to be used in due order ...", however the examiner cannot readily find support for such phraseology. Further response is respectfully required. Although no new matter/insufficient disclosure rejection is presented at this time, absent an adequate explanation, such will be introduced in any subsequent OA.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 12 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by or alternatively under 103 as being obvious over Park et al ('384).

Art Unit: 2627

With respect to claim 1, the product claimed elements are depicted/shown in figure 1 of the Park et al reference. Applicants' attention is drawn to the discussion thereof.

With respect to claim 2, the method of reproducing, such is present in Park et al, see the discussion of managing the defective sectors when a system operates upon the product.

With respect to claim 3, method of recording, as discussed in col. 5 starting at line 7 (with respect to figure 5 thereof), appropriate flags are added to the optical recording medium as necessary. The examiner interprets such as disclosing the method of recording onto the disc, wherein the setting of the flags meets the "replacement" limitation.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ohata et al is cited as also illustrative of prior art defective disc systems, and products – see the discussion with respect to figure 1, and the operation of the overall system. This reference can be relied upon in place of the above used Park et al patent to reject the claims.
